ABANDONED, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

At the ninth hour of Jesus' crucifixion, as he was in extreme pain and dying, He called to God as if He were abandoned. We know that God had not abandoned Him, but was using Jesus to take away our sins; and so, God was not, and does not abandon us. As Jesus went to His glory to sit at the right hand of God, so we were given a path to live eternally in His presence. Far from being abandoned, we, too, are being used by the Lord to do His work. Regardless of our circumstances, there always is something we can do for the Lord. —Mac Harris
